

3. Make a donation

Donations from individuals, churches, districts etc have enabled us to gradually improve the facilities at the Centre. If you would like to make a donation to help us do more, please use the form below.

If you would like to donate on a regular basis you might wish to become a 'Friend of The Nightingale Centre' (see overleaf)

4. Give to remember

If you would like to make a donation in memory of a loved one please use the form below and please let us know the name of the loved one (and, if you wish, the birth and death dates) so we can enter the details in the Book of Remembrance at the Centre payable to 'The Nightingale Centre'

5. Leave a gift in your will

Not everyone can afford to give as generously as they would like during their lifetime. Legacies are one way of expressing generosity at a level which may not have been possible during one's lifetime.

Over the years legacies have been a major help in developing our Centre. Continuing generosity will help in ensuring the Centre will serve future generations.

If you are thinking about leaving a legacy to The Nightingale Centre please ask for a leaflet which explains this in simple terms, or ask your solicitor for help and advice.

We will give due acknowledgement of legacies (for example on the Centre's website) except, of course, where alternative wishes are expressed.

6. Spread the word

Using the Centre is of course the best way to support the Centre. So if you've enjoyed your stay at the Nightingale Centre please let others know - your friends, your work colleagues, church members, those who need a conference venue or someone looking for somewhere different for a holiday in the countryside.

7. Come and stay again

Come to a regular event or perhaps something you haven't tried before. Or just come to relax in a peaceful place. Whatever your reason we look forward to welcoming you again soon!
